In the academic year 2022-23, a comprehensive session on Professional Ethics was conducted on November 9, 2022, during the first-year induction program. The session aimed to instil a culture of social commitment and ethical behaviour among the students. Mr. Abhijeet Dehadrai, a seasoned Trainer and Assistant Professor in the Humanities Department, was the resource person. The session was strategically designed to be activity-based, providing an experiential learning experience for over 250 students.

Content Covered:

Mr. Abhijeet Dehadrai, in his role as a facilitator, delved into various aspects of professional ethics crucial for the students' holistic development. The content included understanding the importance of ethical behaviour in career progression and life in general with the following areas covered:

- Explore the link between ethical behaviour and personal/professional success.
- Discuss the role of engineers in society and the impact of their decisions.

2. Core Ethical Principles:

- Introduce fundamental ethical principles such as honesty, integrity, and accountability.
- Discuss the concept of professional responsibility and its implications.
- Explore the importance of transparency and open communication.

The interactive nature of the session allowed students to actively participate, enhancing their comprehension and application of ethical principles.

Continuation in 2023-24:

Building on the success of the previous year, a similar session on Professional Ethics was conducted on August 17, 2023, for the first-year students of the academic year 2023-24. Once again, Mr. Abhijeet Dehadrai led the session, maintaining consistency and ensuring that the ethical principles were reinforced among the new batch of students.

Additional Session on Universal Human Values:

In addition to the Professional Ethics session, Dr. Vikas Thakur, a distinguished Professor in the Civil Engineering Department with a background in psychology (MA Psychology Degree), delivered a session on Universal Human Values on August 16, 2023. This session complemented the ethics module, providing a broader perspective on values that extend beyond the professional realm.
